

PRIDE

Father God, I choose to reject and renounce pride. I forbid pride to enter my heart to deceive me. I choose to reject the pride of life that persecutes others and ask forgiveness if I have persecuted others in any way.

I repent and renounce all lies and any way in which my mouth has been perverse and brought strife. I break any curse that pride has brought into my life and I repent of all deception.

The Word of God says that pride goes before destruction. I refuse to be destroyed by pride. I take off the necklace of pride, vanity and arrogance. I throw them into the fire of God.

Pride is a scoffer and brings wrath. I cancel, nullify and void every scornful and angry word that I have spoken or which has been spoken against me.

I refuse to submit to pride. Jesus is my only king and sits on the throne of my heart. I ask that the angels of the Lord open any scales of pride which are shut up tightly in my life. I ask that humility be poured into my soul so that the love of God may be released to heal and restore.

I am totally and utterly dependent on the one true living God for everything. I embrace the love of God for me. I acknowledge that every good and perfect gift is from above and that without Jesus I can do nothing. Moment by moment I call upon Jesus to help me, heal me, deliver me, strengthen me, prosper me, lead me and guide me. I glory only in this one thing, that I know the Lord God, maker of heaven and earth, and His son Jesus who humbled Himself to deliver me from pride.

Lord Jesus I humble myself before you. I ask that you would spread out your hand and bring down pride, trample the crown of pride under foot and set me on the safe shore of humility.

Amen
