

Prayer For A Loved One

Thank You, Lord, for giving unto (name) those things that no man can give.

Thank You Lord for giving unto (name) those things that no man can ever give back into (his/her) life.

Thank You for choosing (name) and that (he/she) is special to you.

No one can love (name) like You love (him/her).

I acknowledge that You are the Lord of hosts and that You have great and wonderful things in store for (name).

I ask that You give (name) grace to press into You that (he/she) may receive all that You have come to give (him/her). I will not limit You in what You can do for (him/her).

I say that (name) will praise You and lift You up. It is You Lord who will bring out of (him/her) all that You have planted within (him/her).

You knew (name) before (he/she) was born and You will make of (name) the (man/woman) that You have called (him/her) to be.

(name) will not be lacking in any good thing. (name) will trust You Lord.

(name) will not lean on (his/her) own understanding but will acknowledge You Lord in all (his/her) ways and You will direct (his/her) steps.

(name) will trust in You Lord and dwell in You and allow Your Word to be rich in (his/her) heart.

(name) will speak Your Word and (he/she) will see others delivered and set free.

Give (name) grace to trust You at all times and grace to receive from You all the love You have for (him/her).

I ask for grace that (name) may know that You are Almighty God and that (he/she) belongs to You and that You dwell in (him/her) and walk with (him/her).

Cause Your blessings to be poured out upon (his/her) life that You may receive the glory.

Amen
